A Message from RightAngle™ President Bill Knighton

At RightAngle™ Products, we are committed to the health and safety of our employees, customers, and the communities in which we live and work. I wanted to take a minute to share how we maintaining those values in light of the Coronavirus outbreak.

RightAngle's Commitment to Customers

Our office and factory is still currently up and running, and we will continue to take and fulfill orders. The RightAngle™ team is doing everything we can to limit disruptions in production and service.

If at any time our office hours or production changes, you will be informed immediately. We will continue to do our best to adapt to the given circumstances and fulfill our commitments to you.

Business and Factory Operations Plan

To maintain a healthy and safe work environment, the RightAngle™ team is complying with all recommendations set by world, national, and state health organizations. We have implemented social distancing. All large gatherings have been eliminated, and other face-to-face interactions have been limited.

Additionally, our team has increased the frequency and intensity of cleaning and sanitization of the plant. For protection of everyone, we are asking that only employees and those with scheduled appointments visit our Schofield location.

If your company has altered business hours or closed, please let us know. This will help us make sure product deliveries are successful and carrier fines can be avoided.

Please stay safe, and we will keep you informed on any changes as quickly as possible.

All the best,
Bill Knighton
President of RightAngle™ Products
